

Common Grackle (Quiscalus quiscula), Willcox, Cochise County

This Common Grackle was discovered by Max Jarrett, and photographed by Chris Rohrer on 12 February 2021.

This species is casual in Arizona. There are now more than 30 records for the state, and the Arizona Bird Committee just removed it as a review species at the end of 2020.

12 February 2021, photo by Chris Rohrer

All photos are copyrighted© by photographer

Submitted on 15 February 2021