

Flame-colored Tanager (Piranga bidentata), Ramsey Canyon Preserve, Cochise County

This male Flame-colored Tanager was photographed by Kordeen Kor on 20 April 2022

Flame-colored Tanager is a casual visitor, and probably a rare breeding species in Southeastern Arizona. A pair of Flame-colored Tanager had been present in Ramsey Canyon for several years, and this male may represent one of those individuals.

20 April 2022, photo by Kordeen Kor

All photos are copyrighted© by photographer

Submitted on 20 April 2022