

Magnolia Warbler (Setophaga magnolia), Indian School Park, Maricopa County

This Magnolia Warbler was discovered by Terry Michl on 03 October 2020 and photographed by Jim Burns on 04 October 2020.

Casual in Arizona, nearly annual as a migrant (primarily fall) or winter visitor.

Complete eye ring, yellow breast, faint gray breast band, thin white wing bars, and light streaking on flanks and back.

04 October 2020, photo by Jim Burns

All photos are copyrighted© by photographer

Submitted on 04 October 2020