

Red-necked Grebe (Podiceps grisegena), Lake Pleasant, Maricopa County

This Red-necked Grebe was photographed by Charles Babbitt on 31 October 2022.

Red-necked Grebe is a casual fall and winter visitor to the state. There are now more than 30-35 records from Arizona, and is no longer an ABC review species.

31 October 2022, photo by Charles Babbitt

All photos are copyrighted© by photographer

Submitted on 31 October 2022